Proud of our Products and Services for 25 years!

Omega Enterprises

Omega Enterprises was formed as an aviation consultant. Since that time the company, while maintaining its consulting identity, has considerably broadened its scope including but not limited to the following:

- Operating and maintaining aircraft for various domestic clients. This involves domestic and international flight operations, planning and interfacing with the appropriate regulatory agencies, setting up and overseeing maintenance programs and maintaining aircraft records in accordance with regulatory requirements generally on a comprised database.
- Brokering and acting as agent for the sales or lease of both civil and military aircraft.
- Establishing availability of hard-to-obtain parts and components for both civil and military aircraft.
- Working with various governments and military entities to provide maintenance and spares conduit for aircraft and other equipment.
- Manufacturing of specialized military apparel.

In addition to the operations previously described above, Omega Enterprises has embraced a much wider variety of challenging projects including the acquisition of a broad range of military arms and equipment. In collaboration with three principal corporate associates, we can offer a comprehensive menu for our military clients. Omega Enterprises LLC is adept with the skills required in the political and diplomatic arenas and as such, can deal with sensitive situations requiring the utmost discretion and tact. All transactions and communications are conducted with total confidentiality and Omega Enterprises protects its sources and clients completely.
